This is your chance to get the opinions of these two fantastic Judges on your animals.

This is the only show in NZ where every animal is critiqued.

For those who are able to offer a little more sponsorship, you will receive a lot more publicity

Our Efficient NZ Judges:

Dean Ford:

Dean, former owner/operator at Vista Del Sud alpaca stud specializing in grey Huacaya in Australia now lives in New Zealand, living the dream with his wife Lisa on their farm.

Dean is committed to the alpaca industry beginning his apprenticeship in 2013, now being an accredited judge in both Australia and New Zealand.

He believes that the education of breeders is paramount at shows by conveying descriptive and meaningful critiques while providing reliable comparisons for breeders to assess. This then allows breeders to be able to visualize what has been said by the judge.

Prior to becoming a judge, Dean had previously undertaken various volunteer leadership roles for the AAA in Australia, including President of Victorian Central Region (VCR) and convenor of Colourbration in Bendigo, Australia which then was Australia's largest alpaca color show.

Dean has a passion for fiber and wool classing, he successfully completed his professional Wool Classer certificate with AWEX in 2012 becoming a registered classer.

He also assisted pilot the alpaca fiber classing programme within the TAFE system in Australia completing the competency.

In 2022 Dean was honored to be asked to judge the fleece at the World Alpaca Conference in Graz, Austria. It was an amazing opportunity to be involved in the growth of Alpaca in Europe.

Dean looks forward to continuing to have an impact on both new and seasoned breeders helping them to become successful in their craft.

Lisa Ford:

Lisa lives on her family's farm "Waters Edge Alpacas" located in Auckland, New Zealand along with her husband Dean, and her two children (Paris 21 and Jordan 19.)

Lisa works full time as the Events Manager for the 'Ultimate Rally Group' who run all the Targa and Silver Fern rally events throughout NZ.

Her passion to judge stemmed from not only her love of Alpacas but also in her desire to help educate other breeders to grow this industry even further.

Lisa loves getting the opportunity to judge at shows as it allows breeders to hear descriptions and comparisons between the animals in each class which ultimately can help and enhance their future breeding.

She hopes that every breeder, whether they walk away from a show she has judged with a ribbon or not, takes away some helpful knowledge from the day.

As well as being a qualified New Zealand Alpaca Judge, she was also part of the Australian Apprentice Judges programme, co-convoked the 2019 NZ National Alpaca Show, was on the AANZ Showing & Judging committee, and her and Dean also spent 3 weeks in Europe in 2023 judging the fleece section at the World Alpaca Expo in Austria.
